Memorandum of common provisions Section 91A Transfer of Land Act 1958

Covenants:

DEFINITIONS

In this memorandum, unless the context otherwise requires:

Building means any permanent or semi-permanent structure on a lot and includes a dwelling.

Building Design Guidelines means the Kingston Coast Building Information & Design Guidelines as revised from time to time by the Design Assessment Panel. A copy of the current version can be obtained from the Design Assessment Panel.

Burdened land means a lot identified in the Plan as burdened by a restriction described in this MCP.

Corner Lot means a lot:

- contiguous with:
 - two intersecting streets; or
 - a street whose curvature provides the characteristics of a corner allotment; or
- deemed by the Design Assessment Panel to be corner lot.

Design Assessment Panel means the Kingston Coast Design Assessment Panel described in the Building Design Guidelines.

Dwelling has the same meaning as set out in the Land Use Terms of the planning scheme that applies to the land in the Plan but excluding outbuildings, carport/garage, outdoor rooms/alfresco, porches, and verandas.

ground level is deemed to be the finished surface level following completion of engineering works associated with the subdivision.

Lifestyle Lot means a Lot with a land area greater than 800 m² on the Plan, with a minimum dwelling size of no less than 200 m².

Lot has the same meaning as in the Subdivision Act 1988 (Vic), being a lot created by the Plan and if permitted, includes any lot created by further subdivision

Multi dwelling site means Lots 420 and 446 on the Plan.

MCP means this Memorandum of Common Provisions.

Plan means plan of subdivision PS 824650P.

Primary frontage means for each Lot, unless otherwise determined by the Design Assessment Panel or specifically stipulated in this MCP, the shortest boundary of that lot which abuts a street.

Public land means any land under the care or management of a Public Land Manger as that expression is defined in the General Terms of the planning scheme that applies to the land in the Plan.

Rear boundary means the Lot boundary which is opposite the Primary frontage, or the appropriate Lot boundary as determined by the Design Assessment Panel.

Residential Lot means a Lot with a land area between 381 m² and 799 m² on the Plan, with a minimum dwelling size of no less than 135 m².

Secondary frontage means the boundary of a Lot (other than the Primary frontage) which abuts a street.

Setback means the required distance between the relevant boundary and the building line as outlined in the Building Design Guidelines, unless otherwise noted in this MCP. A setback of up to 150 millimetres from the lot boundary is deemed to be on the boundary.

Memorandum of common provisions Section 91A Transfer of Land Act 1958

Side boundary means the boundary of a Lot connecting the Primary frontage to the rear boundary. Where that Lot is a Corner Lot, the side boundary includes the boundary along the Secondary frontage.

Townhouse Lot means any Lot with a land area of 380 m² or less on the Plan, with a minimum dwelling size of no less than 115 m².
